Genesis Security Systems Joins National Security Integrators To Take Care Of National Accounts

Genesis Security Systems LLC of Germantown Maryland has become a founding member of National Security Integrators (NSI). NSI is a federation of privately held security integrators located in the major metropolitan markets throughout the United States. The impetus behind the creation of NSI was the need to provide high-quality consistent security services for companies with regional offices throughout the United States. In the past, companies could only turn to the large national firms for one-stop shopping of security services. Now, there is National Security Integrators.
